hope scarves

About

The mission of Hope Scarves is to share scarves, stories and hope with women facing cancer.

Lara MacGregor, Founder of Hope Scarves, was 30 years old and seven-months pregnant when she was first diagnosed with breast cancer. A mutual friend mailed MacGregor a box of scarves with a note saying, "You can do this". This gesture later became the inspiration for creating Hope Scarves. We want each woman who wears a Hope Scarf to feel the strength and optimism of the women who wore it before her.

Lara was diagnosed with Metastatic Breast Cancer in 2014. As a result, a Metastatic Breast Cancer Research Fund was established at Hope Scarves to direct a portion of each dollar raised to metastatic breast cancer research to help Lara and others like her have more treatment options.

Request a Scarf

For Yourself

An individual facing cancer can request a scarf at no charge. Each scarf is sent along with a story of a woman who has faced cancer and sincere encouragement from Hope Scarves. When the person who requested the scarf is ready, she can send the scarf back to Hope Scarves and add her story. The scarf will then continue on its journey to another woman, with the new story added to its legacy.

For Someone Else

Hope Scarves helps friends and family members do something meaningful for those battling cancer. A Hope Scarf is a thoughtful gift that comes wrapped in a happy package with a personal message from the sender. Please consider making a charitable donation to Hope Scarves in honor of the recipient.

www.hopescarves.org

Support

Share a Scarf or a Story

The strength of Hope Scarves is the stories. Please consider sharing your scarves and story of survival to inspire other women. We also accept scarves that were not worn for medical treatment and survivor stories from those who may not have a scarf to share. The ideal size for a Hope Scarf is 30" square or greater. Each scarf is professionally dry cleaned in an environmentally friendly way by Highland Cleaners in preparation for its journey.

Donate

Hope Scarves is a nonprofit organization that depends on donations to help collect and share scarves and stories.

Please visit hopescarves.org to request, donate or learn more about Hope Scarves.

"Lend me your hope for awhile.

A time will come when I will heaf,
and I will lend my renewed hope to others."

- Eloise Cole

141 N. Sherrin Avenue Suite # 227 Louisville, KY 40207 502.333.9715

www.hopescarves.org